

2016 MORGAN HORSE OF THE YEAR: ATTN POSTMASTER

(Owner: Mackenzie Collins)

Attn Postmaster is the 2016 recipient of the Morgan Horse of the Year Award. Owned and ridden by Mackenzie Collins of Loretto, ON, the 2002 bay gelding was sired by the prolific stallion, Cedar Creek Harlequin.

Mackenzie and Attn Postmaster, called Prince around the barn, have been partnered since 2012, earning numerous championships in hunter pleasure and equitation in Ontario and the United States. They have been the recipients of over a dozen Canadian Morgan Horse Association (CMHA) Provincial and National Champion titles, and Prince is one of few horses to have earned not one, but two coveted Horse Show Wire Best Performance of the Show awards.

“I’m so thankful to have such a wonderful partner,” said Mackenzie. “It is because of Prince that I have become the equestrian I am. Prince may be the Morgan Horse of the Year, but he is my horse of a lifetime. Thank you to everyone who has helped us reach this incredible milestone, especially my amazing and supportive parents. I’m truly blessed.”
